DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 1-5, 7-11, 13-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Yokoyama (6,547,400).

Yokoyama discloses a projection arrangement wherein a plurality of LED's arranged on a substrate (wafer) (Column 7 Line 8) for producing lights of at least two colors. Figure 13 illustrates the arrangement of the LED's. Each set of R, G, B is interpreted as a "group". As noted in the description of Figure 14, the LED's may be illuminated such that each individual color diode of each group is sequentially illuminated, thus producing a "scroll" effect of colored lines and also are considered to be "flashed" as the limitation is commonly defined.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 6 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yokoyama.

Yokoyama does not specify the claimed method of formation of the LED array.

As best as the formation of the LED's on multiple substrates can be understood from the skeletal description in the specification, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to form an LED array by a variety of methods including single and plural

"substrate" bases because such is well within the level of ordinary skill of conventional electronics.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

As regards applicant's argument with respect to claims 6 and 12 that "the mere existence of an object neither teaches or suggests it's use in a particular application", it is noted that the specification fails to present any description as to whether or not such a structure results in any critical component of the invention. The rejection is based upon the teaching that one of ordinary skill would have known how to form an LED array by a variety of methods, any one of which would act as well as any other in the context of the invention of Yokoyama.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
